.roam? The gayest of hearts was he, And aye in the spring of the year May-flowers he brought to me, --The sea s moan do I hear? May-flowers he brought to me With a shy half-smile and a blush, And now he is o er the sea; In vain my fond tears gush. I wish that my spirit free Might speed o er the white, white foam, He is dying far from me, Dying away from home. Class Ode, 1890. FHE distant star s the fairest star, And charms have untried seas, Dreams fancies fairest fancies are, The unattained doth please. The future lot in youth s glad thought Perforce must far excel The joys that olden days have brought, Though memory keeps them well. But mist may veil the brightest star, And storms may vex the sea, Dream fancies, like fair phantoms are, Though fair,...
