Senator C. There might be one difference. I have a AMPBELL hunch the banking system does a much better job in record keeping than the Federal Government. I guess thats one of my basic con-cerns. When we talk about historical accounting, that leads to the assumption that theres something to account or there are some documents out there or something. But with this huge number of totally missing, gaping holes in the ability to document, thats why I thought, well, somewhere along the line weve got to cut our losses and start cutting some checks to people that want to opt out. Because I dont think were ever going to be able to get a complete and full accounting when we hear stories like we did a couple of years ago...
