Wharton and Stille s Medical Jurisprudence states (sec. 770, note) that in 1850 there was in Great Britain one lunatic to about one thousand persons; only thirty years later the Lunacy Commission of Great Britain reported one lunatic to 357 persons in England and Wales, that is, nearly three times as many. And this introducing the last lecture: IN this last lecture of our course I propose to make a brief excursion with you into the borderland of science, a region chiefly occupied by imposture and superstition. To show there is such...
