

International and Comparative Education (Ice Magazine): Issue 1

By Stephen Griffin

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 146 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .International and Comparative Education (ICE Magazine) is a publication with the purpose of sharing the best student-generated work being produced in the field today. Articles submitted are shared throughout the ICE community around the world with the aim of broadening knowledge of current work in the field and increasing chances for collaboration and cooperation between participants. In this issue: The Education Lifespan Model: A tool for mapping economic return on education William C. Smith
Cosmopolitanism and Global Citizenship Education: an examination of theory and practical application Stephen Griffin
Education for Sustainable Development in South Asia Milan Poudel
Between Tension and Hope: the delineation of cosmopolitanism's universal ambition for global justice in the writings of Seyla Benhabib Braden Rico Plan Ceibal and the Experiment of Total Technology Saturation in Schools Jennifer Bowden
Putting up the basketball hoop: A case study of how a UK grammar school is responding to ethnic, cultural and religious change within its student population Matt Collins
I have a dream! A proposal for an English for Specific Purposes language centre in Soc Trang, Vietnam...

READ ONLINE
[2.03 MB]

Reviews

This is the greatest pdf i actually have go through right up until now. It is actually packed with knowledge and wisdom I found out this book from my dad and i advised this publication to find out.

-- Arely Rath

I actually started reading this pdf. It can be rally exciting throgh reading period of time. Your lifestyle span is going to be enhance as soon as you total reading this ebook.

-- Nya Bechtelar