Vintage, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Richly detailed. . . . Her book is the most interesting account of inner-city high school life in many years and only whets my appetite for more. The Washington Post Book World "A vivid parallel account of the challenges these new teachers face and the challenges of building a movement for change within education. . . . This could be the book that moves Teach for America firmly into the broader national consciousness." New York Post "Here is skilled, attentive documentary work become an instrument for the reader's moral and social reflection educational idealism, its achievements and its tribulations as they envelop the lives of schoolchildren, and their longtime teachers, their newly arrived ones: the effort to 'teach for America' become a social, psychological lesson all its own."Robert Coles, author of Children of Crisis "This important book is also a gripping read. From the first page, when Locke High School is locked down, Foote's compelling and inspiring characters draw us into the dizzying challenge of trying save the next generation and redeem the promise of America. Relentless Pursuit is not just for anyone who cares about poor kids and education. It's for anyone who cares about the future of the country."Jonathan Alter, author of The Defining Moment: FDR's Hundred Days and the Triumph of Hope "This book beautifully conveys the spirit, dedication and heroism of Teach For America and shows why it is such a valuable experience both for its corps members and their students."Walter Isaacson, author of Benjamin Franklin: An American Life "I will put this simply this is one of the most profound books I have ever read. Donna Foote's Relentless Pursuit will make you cringe. It will make you cry. It...
