From Robert Adams: "Cyril Connolly wrote that 'no city should be too large for a man [or woman] to walk out of in a morning.' It is a sensible standard, though by it the Denver area in the 1970s was a disappointment. People had moved there to enjoy nature, but found that nature was mostly inaccessible except on weekends. Often little of it was even visible out the window. The puzzle became how to live inside. These rooms seemed to me then to be mostly sad, although what...
