The people of the State have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign and independent State, and to alter and abolish their constitution and form of government, whenever they may deem it necessary to their safety and happiness, provided such change be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States. 5. All elections shall be free and open, and no power civil or military, shall at any time interfere to prevent the free exercise of the right of suffrage. Article IX. As amended by Chapter 1, Laws 1913, known as Woman s Suffrage Amendment, approved at election November, 1914. Section 1. All elections by the people shall be by ballot. Section 2. Every person of the age of twenty-one years or over, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all general elections and for all officers that now are, or hereafter may be, elective by the people and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people: First, he shall be a citizen of the United States; second, he shall have resided in this State one year immediately preceding the election at which he offers to vote, and in the town, county or precinct such time as may be prescribed by law; provided, first, that no person convicted of felony shall have the right to vote unless he has been pardoned; provided, second, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any person of the right to vote who has such right at the time of the adoption of this constitution; provided, that...
