But I have read hosts of the most beautifully written accounts of it, and they give one no idea of it at all so you will never know what Petra is like, unless you come out here Only be assured that till you have seen it you have not had the glimmering of an idea how beautiful a place can be. - A letter from T.E. Lawrence ("Lawrence of Arabia") to his childhood friend E.T. Leeds in February, 1914. When the European armies of the Third Crusade were defeated at the Battle of Hattin in 1187 CE, the region of what is today southern Jordan was overrun by Saladins armies, and over the following five centuries knowledge of Petras existence was lost to the people of Europe. The ancient city and center of civilization hidden in the desert became a myth, drawn largely upon Biblical accounts of the people and places in the Holy Land. However, during the Enlightenment of the early 18th century,...
